Dear Participants, Ladies and Gentlemen,

السلام عليكم ورحمة الله

Very Good Afternoon

It gives me a great pleasure to take part in the closing session of this important training workshop on Islamic Banking and Finance for Central Banks.

Allow me, at the outset, to express my deep thanks and gratitude to the International Islamic Trade Finance Corporation (ITFC) and to the Istanbul School for Central Banking for honouring us to be a partner together with them in organizing this training workshop here in Istanbul and for the excellent arrangements, they made to ensure the success of the training.

I am confident that this training workshop has been a valuable opportunity to the participating trainees from the Central Banks of the CIS countries, Azerbaijan and Afghanistan for enhancing and enriching their knowledge and understanding of the fundamentals of Islamic Banking and Finance practices.

I wish you had a good discussion during this training workshop and got a new experience in this important domain of Islamic Banking and Finance systems. I am confident that this experience and knowledge will add value to the efforts of your respective countries towards promoting the development of this vital financial industry, which has a high potential for boosting economic development and trade in our Member Countries.
