

Loopholes in USA Markets and Financial Regulation

Mustafa Şahin*

After the "Great Recession", public in USA was hopeful for massive regulatory overhaul of financial system but these hopes largely left unfilled. We will examine the development of loopholes in financial regulations and proposed remedies by various agencies. In light of these resolutions we will give recommendations for emerging market regulators.

---

* Mustafa Sahin is a Senior Analyst at Maple Securities USA, Inc. Before joining Maple he served as Financial Analyst at Mane Fund Management and as SAS analyst at MakroTech, a pharmaceutical consulting firm. He holds Master of Science in Financial Engineering from Steven's Institute of Technology and Master of Science in Mathematics from The Ohio State University.